As a reply to ticket entry, I will rephrase my statement which have clearly been distorted.

I advised the request from the Government was dismissed in other words: interlocutory sale denied.

I never stated the case was dismissed however it will be in Jesus name for this is an illegal forfeiture.

As far as litigation goes I will be using full extent of the law I have a thorough ongoing investigation.

Drama and exaggeration statement:

Are not impartial rather subjective it is my understanding that per the judicial duties a judge is required to be impartial which I am entitled to by law.

Once the motion is filed per court record a reply will be provided.

If the court wants a motion filed per rule 12 it will be provided shortly within the timeframe available within my busy preaching schedule.
